Hope

by Sally King Jackson
August 17, 1960

The moon hung low, no stars in sight.
Blacker grew the night.
I lost my way.
Dejected sitting still, one thousand thoughts run
through my mind.
Good and Evil what are they? And how am I to tell?
I cannot see the truth for this black shroud.
Then suddenly a small light is twinkling on yon hill. Whence it comes, who knows? But I shall journey on to find it.

Workshop

PATT ODOM will be giving a very fun and interesting workshop on March 11 and 12. It will be in mixed media with emphasis on design and composition. The cost is $125.00. A down payment of $75.00 is due on or before Feb. 4. There are only a few spaces left and the limit is 20, so please call me ASAP if you are interested. Patt has a resume a mile long. She was the head of the art department at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College for years and has won pages and pages of awards, plus more. It will be so much fun and held at the Ben McNair Center. Give Sory Yager a call at 601-264-8412 or cell: 228-493-2991 or email: sorryager@gmail.com.

100 YEAR OLD PIECE OF HISTORY

SMAA member Terry Tjaders' work becomes part of Laurel, MS history. The City Hall in Laurel had to cut down a 100 year old oak tree in front of their City Hall and offered this tree to local woodturners. Terry received two branches from this tree and turned seven pieces from it -- four hollow forms & three bowls. To read more on this story please visit the Hattiesburg American online. Story was printed January 2, 2011.
